

Some kids live with a mom and dad.

Some kids live with just a mom and visit dad...
and, then...

there are kids that live with their dad and visit their mom.

Each family is different,
but they are still a family.
We are still a family, too!

I will have my things at both houses.
I will have love at both houses.
I can do fun things at both houses.